Crowds at Annual Minstrel Show

St. Margaret's Players in Two-Day Show

Those who had the good fortune of witnessing the annual revival of the St. Margaret's Minstrel Troupe were treated to a rare display of the blackfaced art. "Better than ever" was the report of the capacity crowd that filled the hall both evenings.

The show itself was replete with thrills and mirth-provoking suggestions. No local stone of merit was left unturned in order to produce a round of laughter. There were puns and pranks galore, both of a commendable and condemnable nature. From the opening ensemble to the well-executed display of the adept pupil of tersipchore (none other than Mike Collins, himself); a repertoire of vocal selections and repartee was unfolded much to the delight and plaudits of the audience. In quick succession followed an elaborate performance of Gaelic dancing interspersed with hair-raising stunts. The grand denouement was a capping climax to a delightful evening's entertainment. The proper method of maintaining a day nursery, "a la cave-man" was amply and successfully demonstrated by a cast iron cast of apparently cruel chaperones and prim pickaninnies. Lest we forget mention should be made of the dental demonstration by the visiting dentist and his willy-nilly patient which evoked the approval of the audience.

An enjoyable time was spent by all much to the envy of those who missed the opportunity of seeing a high-grade, first class presentation. In the audience were noted well-known visitors and guests. Among whom were conspicuous the pennant-winning ball club chaperoned by Manager Fred Walzer and ably seconded by Cy Perkins.

The music for the occasion was supplied by the inimitable Joe McGrath and his syncopators, who put the finishing touches to an event which was a credit to the community, a source of satisfaction to the cast, a means of entertainment to the audience and last but not least added proof to the fact that Narberth can not only compete with but excel its neighbors in any sphere of action.

Boy Scouts Fathers' Association to Meet

The first formal meeting of the Fathers' Association, which has been formed primarily for the purpose of sponsoring the Boy Scout movement in Narberth, will be held at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening, December 3, 1924, at the Scout house. It is particularly desired by the present committee that the fathers of all boys in the troop should be present and we will be glad to welcome any other men who are interested in this movement. Most particularly do we want to have present the men whose generosity made possible the purchase of the Scout house and grounds.

At this meeting of the Fathers' Association it is planned to elect officers and adopt by-laws. It can, therefore, be seen that it is important that those interested should make a special effort to be present. No dues.

Benefit Card Party.

Have you reserved a table for bridge, five hundred or mah jong Friday afternoon, December 5? If not call Mrs. R. C. Hoffman, chairman, or anyone of the committee. The members are: Mrs. B. E. Achenbach, Mrs. C. W. Bates, Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, Mrs. J. W. Darville, Mrs. W. W. Deacon, Mrs. Winthrop Derby, Mrs. L. C. Douglass, Mrs. E. C. Griswold, Mrs. W. J. Henderson, Mrs. Carl B. Metzger, Mrs. Horace Murray, Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson, Mrs. E. C. Town, Mrs. L. H. Trotter.

The proceeds are for improving Elm Hall, and it is hoped that tickets will be bought and donations made by those who want Elm Hall improved, whether they can play or not.

Buys on Avon Road.

W. Gordon Smith has sold to Samuel K. White to Dana O. Lyle a detached residence and garage on the north side of Avon road. The property was priced at $15,000.

Local Player Scores Winning Touchdown in Annual Fray

Odiorne Carried Ball to Muddy Victory in Radnor Game Saturday

Tradition held sway for two damp hours last Saturday at Wayne when the Lower Merion High aggregation of Frank Forstburg defeated their ancient rivals of the Main Line, the Radnor High School, at the latter's field. The score was 7 to 0.

Narberth played a big part. Not only did a large aggregation of local rooters attend the fray, but the winning touchdown was scored by a local boy—Al Odiorne. The victory gives the Montgomery county champions permanent possession of the Kilpatrick Cup, a trophy toward which the teams have been turning envious eyes for many years. The straight victories of the past seasons, however, gave the Lower Merion warriors the trophy for good and all, having won it for three consecutive years.

The meeting was the twenty-eighth meeting between the Main Line's two greatest scholastic rivals, and without a doubt the contest was one of the hardest fought since the two became acquainted on the football field.

mud and the players splashed around with no immediate results throughout the major part of the game, the first period being the only one in which the Lower Merion team was able to tally against their rivals.

The proteges of Forstburg showed all of the fight that was in them in their last game of the season and the team showed that it was vastly superior to the Radnor eleven.

The star of the game was Al Odiorne, the elusive half-back of the winning team, made slipperier than ever by the muddy field on which the game was staged. He accounted for the touchdown which eventually proved to be the deciding one of the day, after he had bucked the strong Radnor line for many substantial gains.

The captain of the Lower Merion team, Frank Peabody, was forced out of the game, due to an injured shoulder sustained in a previous game. He did, however, start the game, to the joy of the Maroon and White rooters.

Kuen and Dilworth were the pillars of the Lower Merion line, and their sure tackling was one of the features of the game.

Paul Scull, as usual, performed brilliantly with his hefty toe, sending the slimy pigskin spinning down the field at many of the dangerous points of the conflict.

The star for the losers was McMonagle, the clever signal caller of the Radnor team, who accounted for the gains that had the Lower Merion rooters worried at times.

The first period was the only one in which the suburban monarchs were able to cross the goal line. The slippery game started off when "Demon" Dilworth pulled down the Radnor kick-off on the 20-yard line.

Scull booted the ball to the Radnor 35-yard line, and, after a few plays Johnson punted poorly to the 50-yard mark, where the Maroon and White eleven started off on a stiff attack, using the hefty Morris and the elusive Odiorne in a series of line plunges, which eventually put the latter over the line with the slimy oval clutched firmly under his arm. Scull kicked the extra point.

The rest of the game resolved itself into a punting duel between Johnson and Scull in which the latter seemed to be the victor.

The battle was replete with fumbles and blocked punts, which served to keep the cheering students from both institutions on edge at all stages of the game.

With all due consideration for the weather there was a large crowd to witness the game, which numbered well nigh 5000.

MASS MEETING

Child Labor to be Discussed Next Monday.

A mass meeting under the auspices of the Republican Women of Narberth will be held at 3 P. M. Monday in Elm Hall. The purpose will be a discussion of Child Labor.

Every woman who is interested in the welfare of children, public schools and Americanization is urged to hear Mrs. Frank Miles Day, one of the vice presidents of the Public Education and Child Labor Association of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Day is a member of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, the Monday Morning Conference and the New Century Club.

One of the most important questions to be voted upon this winter by the Pennsylvania Legislature is that of the ratification of the Federal Child Labor amendment adopted in the Sixty-eighth Congress by a vote of 297 to 69 in the House and 61 to 23 in the Senate.

President Coolidge has publicly declared himself in favor of the amendment. Senator Pepper voted for it. Three States, including Pennsylvania, permit children of 14 to work nine hours a day in factories. The following national organizations are urging the adoption of the amendment: General Federation of Women's Clubs, National Council of Catholic Women, National League of Women Voters, Young Women's Christian Association, National Council of Jewish Women and many others.

All opportunity will be given to answer any questions. Republican women who wish to join the Republican Women of Narberth are requested to give their names to Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, in District No. 1; Mrs. H. B. Murray, in District No. 2, and Mrs. L. H. Trotter, in District No. 3, Mrs. E. C. Griswold, the president, or to any member of the committee promoting the benefit card party, listed elsewhere in this issue.

MOVING ALONG

Main Line Choral Forming Program for Concert.

After having figuratively started off with its left foot foremost and stubbed its toe on a number of obstacles such as rehearsals for community plays, minstrel shows and the like, the Main Line Choral is at last under full swing and on the high road to the fulfillment of the dreams of those who stand behind it. One of the most gratifying facts is that there have been added a number of voices of high quality, and the spreading news of the splendid ability and fine art of Director Bentz is drawing to the choral many other persons whose talents are above the average.

Perhaps a hasty review of contemplated numbers may serve better than anything else to give an insight into the nature of the work the choral is undertaking. In one group are Rachmaninoff's lovely "Ave Maria" and "Glory be to God," with Mozart's "Adoremus Te, Christe," and Bach's choral "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light." A second group consists of folk songs from Spain, Russia, Ireland and Norway, artistically arranged for a capella chorus. Then there are some Negro spirituals, some of which are old familiar friends—"Deep River" and "Nobody Knows de Trouble I've Seen"—as well as a delightful little love-song entitled "Vira." Coupled with these are the stirring and difficult "Bedouin Love Song," by John Hyatt Brewer, and the lively "Nights of Spring," by Frances McColin, together with "The Spell of the Forest," by Rimsky-Korsakoff; "The Naiades," by Brahmes, and two strange, but exceedingly beautiful melodies by Delius. All of these are supplemented by miscellaneous works of other master composers.

A dance is being planned by the Rose Glen Canoe Club, to be held at Elm Hall on December 12. The music will be furnished by the Texan Orchestra.

Many Enjoy Tennis Dinner Dance

Over 100 at Annual Affair in Elm Hall Last Week

As those fortunate ones who were present can testify, the annual dinner dance of the Narberth Tennis Association, held last Friday evening in Elm Hall, was a wonderful success. More than 100 members and friends were present. Elm Hall was beautifully decorated, thanks to the ladies, and the dinner was the acme of perfection.

President "Bill" Evans, presiding as toastmaster, presented the cups to the winners of the various club events during the past season and then sprang the big surprise of the evening by calling upon Mr. Walter Cowin, treasurer of the club, for a speech. Thereupon ensued a burst of oratory that surprised, delighted and fully repaired every member for his efforts to be present. Mr. Cowin not only displayed a wonderful talent as a speaker, but his grasp of figures was astounding. Every member should now have a clear understanding of the difference between assets and liabilities as applied to the Narberth Tennis Association.

Others who responded with a few words were Mr. W. R. D. Hall, Mr. Carl Metzger, Mr. A. T. Grugan and Mr. Paul W. Gibbons, president of the Philadelphia and District Lawn Tennis Association. Mr. Gibbons said some very nice things about the Narberth Tennis Association and congratulated the club on having such an able president, who, besides doing so much for the club, was making a name for himself as an official of the National Lawn Tennis Association.

After the speeches and formalities the tables were finally cleared away and dancing was in order. Mike Fisch and his orchestra supplied the music in their best style, which made the rest of the evening pass very quickly.

The next dance will be given New Year's Eve, Wednesday, December 31. As each dance seems to be better and more enjoyable than the preceding ones, we would suggest that you secure your tickets as soon as possible. The fact that the next one will be held on New Year's Eve means that Elm Hall will be taxed to its full capacity. Tickets will be mailed to all the members and their friends who are now on the list. If you wish to have your name on the list to receive tickets communicate at once with John Wine, chairman of the committee.

NEW NARBERTH MANAGER

Merion Title & Trust Appoints W. A. Fowler.

Mr. William A. Fowler, former cashier of the Ardmore National Bank, has resigned his position with that institution and has been appointed manager of the Narberth office of the Merion Title & Trust Company, effective as of December 1, 1924.

Mr. Fowler comes to Narberth with a well-rounded banking and executive experience, having been cashier of the Ardmore National Bank for the past five years.

Mr. Fowler is not at present a resident of Narberth, he living in Villanova, but in the very near future he will establish himself in this community.

The board of directors of the Merion Title & Trust Company, at their meeting on Monday, November 24, 1924, elected Mr. George W. Super assistant secretary of the company, effective as of December 1, 1924.

Mr. Super has been with the Merion Title & Trust Company for more than 18 years and his promotion is warranted by his ability, devotion to his duty and engaging personality.

Mr. Super has been acting as manager of the Narberth branch since Mr. Leitch's promotion to treasurer.

Society to Meet.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. James Scott, 119 Woodside avenue, on Monday, December 1, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Samuel Shryock is recovering from her recent serious illness.

NEW BAPTIST PASTOR

Rev. Robert E. Keighton, new Pastor of the Baptist Church, who assumes charge tomorrow.

Baptists To Install New Pastor

Ceremony Tomorrow Ends Dedication Week

The installation of Rev. Robert E. Keighton, the new minister of the Baptist Church, will feature the concluding service of the remarkably interesting program which has been in progress this week.

Mr. Keighton comes to Narberth from the Second Baptist Church of Philadelphia, where he has been associate minister for two years. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and of Crozer Theological Seminary, where he has been taking post-graduate work and teaching a few hours a week in conjunction with his charge at the Second Church. Mr. Keighton, who is approaching 30, is a young man of unusual intellectual attainments. His engaging personality results from a happy combination of the elements of culture, refinement, education, sincerity, deep loyalty to his high calling, and an easy approachability that inspires confidence and makes for the highest type of clergyman and Christian gentleman.

The local church feels that it is very fortunate in securing a man of Mr. Keighton's calibre, and bespeaks for him a genuine welcome to the life of the community.

While Mr. Keighton will be formally installed at the service tomorrow evening, he will not actively assume the duties of his new charge until December 15. He has taken a home on Hampden avenue, his former residence having been at Collingswood, N. J.

The program which has been in progress at the church this week will be concluded in tomorrow's services, the programs for which are given below. An especially fine dedication service has been arranged for the afternoon, in which the ministers of the local churches will participate, although the special music and addresses in the morning and the musical service with the installation of Rev. Keighton in the evening will be of no less interest.

Services, November 30.

Women Hear Talk by Mrs. Bean

Popular Lecturer at Community Club Tuesday

Despite the holiday preparations and out-of-town visits of many of the members of the Community Club meeting on Tuesday was well-attended.

After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting the president made several announcements. She asked members who had not done so to answer the letter sent out by the club some time ago. Only 30 answers have been received.

Members who wish to subscribe to the club federation paper, "The Messenger," are reminded that its publication runs from October to June. The subscription is 25 cents, which amount should be sent to Mrs. H. C. Fenno.

Clothes for the Welfare boxes to the Crossmore School may be left at the Y. M. C. A.

The current events class will be held next Tuesday afternoon, December 2, at 2:30, at the home of Mrs. Mueller, 225 Essex avenue.

There will be no gym or swimming classes this week, but Mrs. Douglas would like to have a large class next week.

Mr. Fred C. Patten gave a short talk on the system of the post office.

Mrs. Bean, who needs no introduction to the club members, talked on "The Change in Europe During the Past Year," and our own presidential election, touching on many points of interest.

She said that the latest anniversary of Armistice day was really the first time that men of affairs could say that Europe was on the road to recovery. The election of Ramsay MacDonald was the first sign of the "Will to Peace" in foreign countries. Also America's willingness to help in the reparations problem was a definite step toward peace. The harsh feelings between England and France over reparations are apparently at an end, and Europe appears to be entering an era of peace, with a promise of prosperity. The Dawes plan points to a solution to the greatest problem even though it may not prove to be absolutely effective. There is still the question of Allied debts and also of debts to America, to be settled.

AN IMPORTANT CAMPAIGN

Public-Spirited Women Will Help Subscription Drive.

It has always been the desire of the publishers of Our Town that every home not only subscribe to the paper, but co-operate in its preparation.

A great proportion of the homes are regular readers, but the rapid changes in population, and the scores of new homes have run far ahead of us, and a complete canvass of Narberth is to be made.

A group of Narberth women, interested in civic work, will start next Monday on a one-week intensive drive to ask every home to become a subscriber to the community paper. Not only will non-subscribers be approached, but every home will be asked to renew at this time, to afford a working fund for improvements and enlargements to the paper.

Renewals received at this time will be credited and the subscription extended from its regular expiration date. Every resident is asked to co-operate in the canvass and to join the list of over a hundred helpers in our editorial work.

Among the ladies who will conduct the drive are: Mrs. Albert E. Brown, Mrs. C. H. Nold, Mrs. J. S. Harris, Mrs. Henry Rose, Mrs. William J. Loughlin, Mrs. Clarence Kaerber, Mrs. D. Warren Wright, Mrs. J. R. Aiken, Mrs. C. A. Farmer, Mrs. Donald E. McCormick, Mrs. J. R. Aiken, Mrs. C. A. Farmer, Mrs. Donald E. McCormick, Mrs. Arthur W. Burns, Mrs. Sadie Jones, Mrs. Howard W. Whitney, Mrs. Thomas Laughlin, Mrs. Augustus J. Loos, Mrs. Kern W. McHose, Mrs. E. C. Griswold, Mrs. William J. Henderson, Mrs. A. H. Wilson, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Robert H. Durbin, Mrs. John VanNess, Mrs. H. C. Gara, Mrs. E. K. Bauer, Mrs. A. T. Bowers, Mrs. Harry B. Weld and Mrs. Leroy C. Douglass.

AGAIN WE ARE PROUD

Some months ago "Our Town" published an article in which comment was made on the dozens of sporting figures who make their homes in Narberth. Athletes of the past and present were reviewed. This expression of local pride was well received. There was widespread comment, and the article was made the basis of comment by Philadelphia sports writers.

Since then a number of other famous figures have joined the list. "Cy" Perkins, for example, and "Ted" Meredith. And then on Thursday of this week, Narberth again came into the limelight.

For on that day the Penn team defeated their ancient rivals from Ithaca by a 20-0 score. And the team, in doing so, completed an undefeated season, the first in 10 years.

And who were the two men back of this wonderful record? Louis Alonzo Young has coached the University eleven with wonderful success. And the organization affairs have been splendidly run by Ernest B. Cozens, graduate manager. Both are Narberth men.

We will soon be called the American sporting centre. And it isn't a half-bad honor, at that.

A Few Corrections.

Last week, when publishing the report of the Needlework Guild, a few lines of type near the end of the report were pieced, resulting in a mix-up in two of the committee lists. The correct lists are:

Mrs. James P. Witherow, director. Members: Mrs. Fred E. Derby, Mrs. S. Weible, Mrs. F. Maxwell, Mrs. E. Walker, Mrs. H. H. Lee, Mrs. A. C. Staples, Miss M. G. Conway, Miss A. B. Witherow, Mrs. John W. Joyce and Mrs. S. A. Rudolph.

Mrs. W. M. Sibley, director. Members: Mrs. Albert Fredericks, Miss L. Beatty, Mrs. J. Chappatte, Mrs. G. F. Michaelsen, Mrs. Thomas A. Tucker, Mr. W. M. Sibley.

Epworth League.

Yes, a wonderful talk was given by Miss Aletha Lamb last Sunday. Everyone received something to think about. During the service Howard Cotter, George Fredrick, William Keard, Paul Maston, Raymond Maxwell, Bremner Yocum were received into full membership in the Epworth League. And still we haven't broken our 41 record for attendance although we came close last Sunday but we expect to hit 50 this Sunday. Mr. F. W. Stites will be the speaker and a large crowd is expected. Yes, you are invited. In fact you are requested to be present.

Young People, Attention.

Any of you young people who are not taking advantage of the many occasions to join a lively, up-to-the-minute organization like the Narberth Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Society are letting slip a great opportunity, both spiritually and socially. Every Sunday evening at 6.45 this constantly growing band of young people meets in the church to discuss the application of the teachings of Jesus Christ to our every day life.

Next Sunday Miss Honora Snyder will lead the discussion on "The Stewardship of Our Prayers." Come and let us know how you stand on this subject and let's talk it over together. Visitors are especially requested to come and are assured a hearty welcome.

Mr. Charles F. Haist, of Mill road, left on Thursday for a business trip to Atlanta, Georgia.

The FIRESIDE

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Michener, of Williamsburg, Va., are visiting their son, Mr. George W. Michener, of Elmwood avenue, during the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Blanche Parker, of Robinson, Ill., is also a guest of the Micheners.

Messrs. John A. Miller and Taylor Henry have returned from a hunting trip through the South. They report good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Beatty, of North Narberth avenue, are spending two weeks at Atlantic City. Miss Dorothy Beatty and Mr. Ralph Beatty joined them over the holidays.

Mrs. W. J. Loughlin and daughter, Katharine, of Chestnut avenue, are visiting relatives in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. J. R. McClelland, of Atlantic City, was the guest this week of Mrs. W. M. Sibley.

Narberth was deserted on Thanksgiving day in the afternoon. It seems that nearly everyone was at Franklin Field to see Penn's victory over Cornell.

Mrs. William C. Claghorn, of Chestnut avenue, entertained on Thanksgiving day with a family dinner. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Clark and children, of Merchantville, N. J., and Mrs. Francis Ottinger, of Ocean City.

Mrs. Francis H. Baker, of Windsor avenue, spent the holidays in Washington, D. C., visiting her niece and nephew. Major and Mrs. John Dibble.

Mr. S. B. Dickie, with his sons, John and Millard, spent a week at their camp near Trout Run, Pa., hunting. The nimrods returned with their quota of pheasants and rabbits.

Mrs. William Bartlett, of Elmwood avenue, has returned from a visit at Pelham Manor, N. Y.

Mrs. Roy C. Williams and her daughter, Ann, spent the holidays at Johnstown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Riddle are spending their honeymoon in Miami, Fla. Mrs. Riddle was Miss Madeline V. McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert McCoy, of Chestnut avenue. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Riddle took place at the bride's home on November 15. On their return, the couple will make their home in Narberth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Howenstein spent Thanksgiving with their son, Ross, at Penn State.

Miss Margaret Fowler attended the Lafayette-Lehigh game at Easton last Saturday.

Mr. C. A. Byrnhodes, father of Mrs. W. M. Sibley, of Haverford avenue, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Messrs. P. J. Newmaker and Edward S. Haws, of Dudley avenue, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Cooke, motored into the country Tuesday for some hunting. They returned with six bunnies.

Mrs. Cameron Carson, of Norristown, was the guest of Mrs. Leroy C. Douglass, of Elm Terrace, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Little and family are spending the Thanksgiving holidays at Torrington, Vermont.

Miss Jerry Lubke, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Newmaker, of Dudley avenue.

Mrs. W. M. Sibley entertained 28 ladies, members of St. Alban's Chapter, O. E. S., at luncheon and bridge at her home last Thursday.

Miss Armour's Child Garden reopened on Friday, November 21 at the residence of Miss Edna K. Smith, 114 Merion avenue. Miss Smith, a graduate of Oberlin Kindergarten Training School, will assist in the work with the children this year.

Church Basketball League Formed.

For some years a group of churches along the Main Line have considered the advisability of forming an interchurch basketball league. However, each year some obstacle has blocked the progress, thus preventing the forming of such a league.

Last year many of the churches along the Main Line had representative basketball teams. These teams met in active competition many times throughout the year, and the results of the games played were successful enough to warrant the forming of a league.

This year the dreams of the basketball enthusiasts have been fulfilled, and a "Main Line Church Basketball League" has been formed.

The league is composed of the following teams: Ardmore Methodists, Ardmore Presbyterians, Cynwyd Methodists, Narberth Methodists, Narberth Presbyterians, St. Mary's Church.

The two Narberth teams will play their home games Thursday evenings in the Narberth Junior High School gym. The games will be begun promptly at 7.45 P. M. The opening game will be played December 4, when the Ardmore Methodist travels to Narberth, to battle the red and white quintet of the Methodist Church.

"Bond Prices Continue Advance!"

For the last year we have been constantly seeing this heading in the various financial pages.

We again want to call your attention to last week's report on a study of the bond prices for the past 20 years. This period contains ten distinct divisions during which bonds gradually worked their way up to the peak price and then back again. Each swing took about twenty to twenty-five years.

In 1875 bonds were at their lowest price for the period of 1855 to 1900.

In 1900 bonds reached the highest price since 1855.

The down swing in prices continued from 1900 to about 1923, and we are now in the beginning of the fifth upswing of bond prices since about 1700. This upswing will continue for about the next twenty to twenty-five years.

We recommend bonds as the very best income bearing investment, and "Now is the time to buy bonds."

When Planning the Home Remember the Hot Water

❑ No other convenience in the home will mean as much to the housewife as suitable baths and kitchen and laundry fixtures, with hot water at the turn of the faucet.

❑ Automatic Gas Hot Water Service is the only answer to this requirement.

❑ The Storage Heater provides an abundance of hot water for all household needs, without work or dirt. It automatically restores the hot water in the tank as used.

TO INSTALL PASTOR

solos, "Spiritual," White; "Song," Grieg; "Cantilena," Goltermann; installation of Minister-elect Rev. Robert E. Keighton; anthem, "The Sun Shall Be No More," Woodward.

The choir, to whom much credit is due for the success of the services of the past week, consists of Charlotte J. Meyer and Edith Carey Sanderson, sopranos; Katharine R. Trotter and Ida E. Cuthbert, contraltos; Walter B. Taitt and Fred C. Patten, tenors; Owen B. Schmidt and Victor L. Sanderson, basses, and Chester H. Norton, organist. Mr. Taitt is the director.

The services of the past week, which met with wide favor and have been the subject of enthusiastic comment, included the opening service last Sunday morning with a sermon by Emory W. Hunt, D.D., L.L.D., president of Bucknell University, and the Sunday evening service, when the sermon was preached by J. Milnor Wilbur, D.D., president of the Baptist Institute and acting pastor.

On Tuesday evening an organ recital was given by Mr. Harry C. Banks, Jr., of Narberth, assisted by Mr. Earl Pfouts, violinist. The selections by Mr. Banks included three delightfully-arranged numbers of four selections each, in which Mr. Banks demonstrated to the delight of his audience his mastery of the instrument and a fine sense of interpretive power, as well as the range and tone of the beautiful new Estey organ of the luminous console—electric control—type. The selections by Mr. Pfouts included two numbers of three selections each, which were rendered with the touch and feeling of the true artist.

On Wednesday evening the Presbyterian, Methodist and Lutheran churches joined in a union prayer service and again on Thursday morning in the annual Thanksgiving service, when the sermon was preached by Rev. M. E. McLinn, minister of the Lutheran Church. Rev. E. A. E. Palmquist presided at the Thanksgiving service.

Following the organ recital Tuesday evening an informal reception was given by the ladies of the church, which was the occasion of a public inspection of the entire church building.

The community service on Friday evening was under the auspices of the Men's Association of the church. The address was given by Rev. James Foster Wilcox, an official of the World Brotherhood Federation for North America.

The elaborate 16-page program published to cover all of the services has been widely appreciated as a souvenir of the dedication services. It is largely the work of Dr. Wilbur, acting and former pastor of the church.

Miss Helen Caldwell and Miss Margaret Livingston are spending the holidays in Brooklyn, New York, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woodford D. Anderson.

Twenty-four-Hour Vigilance—

More than 2,000,000 miles of underground wires must be carefully and constantly tested to insure an uninterrupted service.

Nearly a million miles of wire on poles (much of it in cables) is guarded by hundreds of men, many of whom use "fliers" more economically to cover the territory.

Inside the Bell Buildings, "central office men" are always on duty, making tests, checking up, and watching the millions of connections, every one of which must be perfect.

ETERNAL vigilance has been said to be the price of liberty. It is the price of many things worth having.

Certainly good telephone service depends on it—vigilance in the maintenance of the plant and in the correction of troubles before they occur.

Poles and cables, complicated switchboards and circuits are being constantly tested, practices are continuously observed and overhauled. From every telephone there must be maintained a ready-to-use talk circuit to the other 900,000 in the state, and out over the lines to the sixteen million in the Bell System.

4,000 of our employees—test men and "trouble shooters"—devote all or a portion of their time to this work, in good weather and bad, without let-up.

There is no great mechanism devoted to general public use that is so complicated and delicately adjusted as a telephone plant. It is designed—and reasonably so—to give reliable service, better today than yesterday. But only through everlasting care and watchfulness.

EVERYBODY HELPS

Library's Usefulness Greatly Promoted by Assistance From All Sides.

Friendly interest and support from everyone has been an exceedingly important factor in developing the Narberth Community Library to its present point of wide usefulness. When it is recalled that the library started less than four years ago with 30 books and no funds in sight or assured, and that it has been entirely self-supporting ever since, it can be seen that only by means of the generous support of practically the entire community could its present development have been achieved.

Last Monday members of the staff wished to procure some small strips of wood with which to divide some of the book shelves, and one of them started out to buy them. She went to the Merion Construction Company, which is now working on a construction job in town. She found there exactly what she wanted, indicated the quantity and asked the price. When she mentioned that it was for the library she was told that there would be no charge.

Another indication of friendly co-operation of an entirely different character occurred on the same day when Mr. S. E. Downs, superintendent of the Lower Merion schools, came to the library to meet the librarian and to deliver to her a list of books which are required for reading in the Lower Merion High School. Mr. Downs had had this list checked over by all of his teachers so as to enable the library to co-operate with the Narberth young people who attend the Lower Merion schools. He expressed his satisfaction with the work which the library has been doing for his school children in the past and said that he had taken steps to see that the Narberth Library should be regularly informed in the future of all new lists of books and of reference subjects.

The attendance and volume of distribution in the juvenile department, where all books have always been circulated free of charge, has reached such proportions as to make it necessary to move that department out of the alcove which it had previously occupied. This change took effect last Monday. The juvenile department now uses the front of the room and the periodical reading table has been moved into the alcove under the stairs.

Surprise for Rev. McLinn.

A few evenings ago the Lutheran parsonage at No. 214 Essex avenue was the scene of a pleasant surprise, when the ladies of the Aid Society visited that newly-established domicile laden with good things and gifts for the pastor and his wife. The donation was most timely and helpful, enabling the happy couple to finish the furnishing of their house.

A very pleasant evening was spent in recounting the deeds of the past and dwelling upon the prospects for the future of the church in most animated conversation. The evening's pleasures closed with a very refreshing repast and with a season of the finest fellowship, and with the pronouncement that it was a success, the party dissolved in home-going.

Bazaar Soon.

An interesting feature at the doll booth at the Methodist bazaar will be a bride with a complete trousseau. A very beautiful bride she is, with real grown-up hair (not bobbed) piled high on her head. She is just as irresistible in her going-away suit of brown velvet, her afternoon dresses and tea gowns as in her wedding dress, and you should see her in her blue velvet evening dress with gold-lined cape. Silk underwear, negligees, house dresses and aprons included in outfit. Bring the children to see her.

From the Far North.

Two speakers of unusual interest will be heard at the Presbyterian Church next Wednesday. They are Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spence, missionaries at Point Barrow, Alaska.

Dr. and Mrs. Spence have a thrilling story to tell of their fight against disease and immorality among the Eskimos in the mission nearest the North Pole. The meeting will start at 8 P. M.

Mrs. William E. Boryer and daughter, Shirley, are spending a week in New York State.

Church Notes.

There was "standing room only" at the Men's Bible Class last Sunday. The attendance for the entire Bible school was 425.

Next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the main auditorium, we are to have the privilege of having with us Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spence, who have recently returned from their labors among the Eskimos at Point Barrow, Alaska, the mission nearest the North Pole. Come and enjoy this unusual opportunity of hearing their thrilling story.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's missionary society will be held next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All women cordially invited.

It was a pleasure to have such a fine group of Girl Scouts with us last Sunday morning. We hope they will soon come again.

MRS. BEAN SPEAKS

Speaking of our own election, Mrs. Bean pointed out that the big business men had been behind Coolidge and that since his election there had been the boom in the stock market. Naming some of Coolidge's advantages she said he had been in for a year without needing to make any promise and that he had Dawes as a running mate. The American people had the opportunity of judging Coolidge and had put him above and outside of party.

In America and England it is a case of radicals against conservatives. In England there was an 80 per cent. vote cast, while in America only a 50 to 55 per cent.

The "Red scare" in England turned the tide from the Labor party to the Tories, which party has the largest majority of any for a century past. The liberals still hold 40 seats in Parliament. After MacDonald's resignation Stanley Baldwin became Prime Minister, and passing over Curzon appointed three ex-liberals, Winston Churchill, Austen Chamberlain and Lord Burkenhead. The English Government will have its hands full to keep up to the high standard set by MacDonald.

In reviewing the newest books of interest Mrs. Bean praised highly Anne Sedgewick's "The Little French Girl," a book that will last.
